VOL. IV. NO. 153.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

DAVID TENNY'S FAST RACE.

Washington Park yesterday was anything but a comfortable spot, the steaming atmosphere and fiery sun heating up everything, even to the bookmakers, who gambled high amongst themselves, throwing aside their well-known penchant for percentages in their favor.

The track was at its best. The attendance was smaller than any day of the meeting.

Boanerges, plumed on by Riley Grannan on Tuesday, was by the same bookmaker "coppered" on Wednesday, although his 13 to 10 was not the highest price, Ed Austin opening McGuigan's horse at 3 to 2. Grannan backed Rosinante strongly at 20 to 1 and laid the highest price against The Devil.

A roar of disapproval greeted the starter as Boanerges led passing the stand, but the displeasure of the public was uncalled for, as the horses ran closely together at the turn into the back stretch. The Devil hung to the favorite, while The Elector, third, was taking things easily, Rosinante being soon beaten. At the last quarter Clawson sent The Devil to the front, and when The Elector made his bid at getting ring the denizen of Hades easily shook him off. The post betting was "dutch," an investment of $108 yielding at the best prices the return of a winning of $2 on The Devil, $10 on The Elector, $3 on Boanerges, and $4 on Rosinante.

King Barclaycorn had little trouble in winning, although Willie Howard led him away from the post. April's Lady, well backed by R. Tucker and other horsemen, on the strength of a work in 1:02, was always the contender by reason of the poor start given Pat Dunne's Survivor, who was favorite for place. W. Martin, after getting off badly, made no use of Survivor until the last eighth, then bringing April's Lady to such distress, that it looked as if she must have been beaten had Martin started his run sooner.

W. Martin showed his generalship in his splendid ride on David Tenny, laying off in third position to the last eighth and then riding vigorously to the wire. Bellicoso, first away, had been taken back behind Traverser who jauntily stepped up the back stretch in the lead. He cried "give me a chair," however, at the last three sixteenth post and was soon beaten. Bellicoso was only collared by David Tenny in the last few jumps. Martin got off none too well but saved ground on the first turn. Again the bookmakers were "to a Dutch," as $190 spread around would have netted at least $3 profit no matter which one of the quartet should win.

Mary Black dodged off to an indifferent start, but only led on sufferance from Enchanter, who shot into second place early, Cash Day being prominent the first quarter. When ready Turner went to the front with Enchanter and won as he pleased. It was understood that a different policy than usual prevailed in the Ryan camp, and that Tartarian was not to be allowed to make the pace. It succeeded, for the favorite was never better than third. Lady Irene carried the smart money.

"Afamada, Clawson up; come and back her," sang the bookies, who kept advancing the price what turned out to be a "good thing," the filly by the Duke of Montrose taking the track and winning all the way. The colored brigade kept on playing her from 3 up to 6 to 1, and the race produced the only yell of exultation of the meeting from the swarms that play darkey information.

The Duke of Haven, now owned by W. H. Daniels and Clint De Witt, could not beat Tenole through the stretch. Tom Toher ran an astonishingly good race, and in fourth position at the finish was coming with a wet sail. The others were beaten off.

Mr. Wm. S. Barnes, proprietor of the Melbourne stud farm, Lexington, Ky., when interviewed yesterday in regard to the private sale of ten first class yearlings to John W. Schorr & Son, confirmed the statement about the sale and says they are a grand lot and by nine different sires, but also says the reported price of $15,000 is fictitious and that he did not get anything like that amount. He evidently does not believe in misrepresentation and the giving out of boom prices.

Charley Quinn and Jake Marklein were at the track.

Charley Brossman said that in the Suburban several horses beat Imp for speed and she could never get up. He got as good as 7 to 1 for his money. Imp had no chance in her last race carrying 135 pounds.

Yesterday was "cut-in day," and twenty-five concerns were doing business. Ed Kelly, "Kid" Weller, Jackman, Thompson, George North, William Riley, Barney Wolf, Maxey Blumenthal, George Rose, M. Elias, Sam Wagner, J. Flannigan, J. O'Leary, R. Grannan, "Budd" White, Leo Mayer, W. H. Laudeman, Phillips, Marsh Redon, E. Martin, "Bluff," S. Summerfield, Dave Wright, Ed Austin and P. Riley were the names posted.

M. Blumenthal lost $1500 on Boanerges and said: "I enjoyed the ride, as I was figuring on the waiting race of the day before and got exactly the reverse. This goes to show the value of the tab."

It was rumored that "somebody" bet heavily on Tartarian.

Some outstanding winning tickets of the six bookmakers that ducked the issue of the second "cut in" were ordered paid through the agency of bookmakers still doing business.

Winner—Br. c. 5, by Tremont—Margo.

Start straggling. Won easily. Tremargo showed a little temper and got away well, but was badly shut off at the half. He was best and is in good form. Lady Marian was shut off at the start, losing a length. She closed steadily throughout and was an easy second. This is her race and distance. Hanwell was lucky and ran a good race. He had no chance with his jockey, but showed plenty of speed and was probably short. Reprisal closed stoutly at the end. He has little or no class. Trillo was short and pulled up after showing a fine burst of speed. He is a good looker. Watch him. Van Antwerp is no good, except, perhaps, in mud or on the grass.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 112; Hanlon, 109; Right of Way, 109; Woodranger, 100; Murillo, 103; Calculation, 98.

Overweights—Lady Marian, 2 pounds; Set Fast, 1; Trillo, 2.

Winner—B. f. by Cheviot—Elsie S.

Start good. Won handsily. Cheviot ran like a good filly. She is a good looker and should improve on this race. Lothario acted very green and swerved badly under punishment but came on gamely. He is a good colt. Dr. Parker ran his race and is in good form. Maid of Harlem is a fine looker too, but ran green. She was eased at the end. Watch her. She will win early. Reeves belongs among cheaper ones.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Knight of Ellerslie—Spaldie.

Start good. Won handsily. Latson was lucky throughout and got a good strong ride. He is only a fair colt and hasn't much class. Laudeman was the best. He ran a good game race and is much improved. Slasher was shut off on the back stretch and closed strong. He ran to the mark. Sifleur had no chance with his management. He got away poorly and closed like a lion. Watch him. Merlin was lucky at all stages of the race and ran to the mark. He is not much. Chalmers closed a lot of ground in the last half and is essentially a long distance horse. He requires strong handling. Most ran well but evidently has little class. High Priest was short. He had plenty of speed and was eased in the last quarter. He is a good looker. Watch him.

Scratched—Brass, 112; Hardy C, 109.

Time, 26, 51, 1:16, 1:41 1/2, 1:55.

Winner—Ch. c. 3, by Potomac—Lavinia Belle.

Start fair. Won easily. Rappahannock was best. He was ridden properly too and set a fast and even pace. He is a good colt. Belmar was as easily second best. He began slowly, took the long route and closed fast. He ran a good race. Poetess is still short. Watch her. She should do better next out. King is of no present account.

Scratched—Hats Off, 109; Mount Washington, 106; Atlantus, 101.

6797 FIFTH RACE—1 3/8 Miles. $800 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Falsetto—Cachuca.

Start good. Won easily. The best won. Boyd was not up to a long race. He was very tired at the end. The colt is fast and game and a stayer, but requires strong handling. Sir Vassar has been dulled by jumping. Long hurdle races are not good training for fast flat racing. Howard Mann requires a strong jockey. He bolted as the field got away. He was a fair horse today. He had a severe race, though.

Scratched—Ben Holladay, 129; Latson, 98; Linstock, 95.

Overweights—Sir Vassar, 1 pound.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Handspring has just closed a season in the stud at Castleton. Mr. Patterson will try him out to see if he will stand a preparation for the fall races and if he shows no signs of lameness he will be sent on to his owner, Mr. Dwyer, to race in the east this fall. The horse was sent out to Castleton last winter, having been thrown out of training, the principal trouble with him having been bad feet. His hoofs were in dreadful condition when he arrived, but he has now grown an entirely new set, and in his exercise buck-jumps on the hard turpikes with the abandon of a bilby goat. In addition to his improved feet the horse has improved wonderfully in general health, and probably was never in so robust condition since he was foaled. He has been steadily galloped recently and, if nothing goes wrong with him, he should prove a great horse this fall.—The Thoroughbred Record.

At St. Louis, Saturday, Judge Murphy suspended the well-known turfman Abe Cahn because of the contradictory running of the colt Sir Gatan and referred the case to the stewards for investigation. Sir Gatan ran like a stake colt on the occasion of his first appearance. Then for several subsequent races he ran as if a $5 note would press his value as a racehorse. But in the Junior Championship he suddenly appeared again as a sure enough stake horse by easily showing his heels to such good ones as Ben Bramble and Leo Planter, running a good second to Fausturo. Jockey Combs, who rode him, was also suspended.

July 9, 1894, Ace, then a 2-year-old, ran five furlongs at Washington Park in 1:00. Tuesday Black Venus ran the same distance in the same time, but the filly's performance was much the better, as she carried 118 pounds, while Ace carried but 93. The time is track record for the distance.

In view of his race Tuesday Boanerges was very comfortably handicapped in the Oakwood only 112 pounds to carry; but his victory has gained him a penalty of five pounds, so that if he goes to the post for the event next Saturday it will be with 117 pounds in the saddle.

Milton Young, McGrathiana Stud, has purchased from Bromley & Co., the black horse Nick, 8 years old by Mortemer—Retribution by Reform. Nick will enter the stud at McGrathiana in 1899, he having arrived in Lexington Friday last.

Willie Beauchamp, who has been riding in great form this year and has ranked among the leading western jockeys this season, has left Latonia for Butte, Mont., where he will ride for Mr. Marcus Daly.

Latonia has claimed thirty days beginning October 1 for a fall meeting and Secretary Hopper is credited with declaring the dates will be filled regardless of conflicts with other racing organizations.

Start good. Won easily. Sir Hubert was best. The colt has class and is a stayer. He is evidently game, too. Kingdon had speed, but quit. He has had too much of it. Jockeys reverse though, he would have won. Clap Trap belongs in a lower class.

Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won cleverly. The other three were driving. The Devil was a good horse in the race. He raced with, and killed Boanerges off the first three-quarters, and when The Elector challenged him in the stretch he shook him off like a colt of class. The Elector showed himself to be a good colt. He seemed a trifle sore at the post but ran a cracking good race. Boanerges showed himself to be a coward. He gave it up badly at the end. This fellow is not at all game and the early pace took the heart out of him. Rosinante was played and can be considered in cheaper company.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving to the limit. Fourth eased at the end. King Barlycorn showed himself to be a colt of class. Considering the weight he ran a phenomenal race. The third eighth of the journey was run in 11½ seconds. This killed off April's Lady. The latter ran a greatly improved race over her last. She was tiring badly though at the end. Survivor was a trifle green at the post. Naturally, he got rather the worst of the send off. He is a good looker and evidently likes a route. He finished very strong, and had Martin begun work on him sooner, he would have been second. Willie Howard was well up all the way and ran a good race.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Tenny—Minnie B.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won in a terrific drive of two; third and fourth eased up. Martin rode one of his perfect races. He waited patiently with David Tenny, took him wide on the far and stretch turns and rode an extremely powerful finish. The reason for taking the colt wide to the rail. Riders reversed Bellicoso would certainly have won. Clawson did his best but was a trifle outclassed. He also got his mount out off on the far turn. It was the prettiest finish of the meeting. Traverser had a lot of speed, but it was misused. Burns rushed him to the front immediately after the start and pumped him out the first three-quarters. Morte Fonce ran his race. He was outclassed, and but for the early pace could not have been third. David Tenny was kicked twice at the post.
Scratched—Boanerges, 109; Paul Kauvar, 105.

Winner—B. g. 4, by Carnegie—Panana.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; next four driving. As the race was run Enchanter was the best. He got off flying and always had clear sailing. He was about the only horse in the race that had it. After leaving the half mile post there was a lot of bumping and interference. Mary Black was sharply cut off and had to pull up. Amy Wade ran an excellent race. She was away poorly but Burns took the short route and luckily got through in the spread on the home turn. Tartarian met with interference and had to go around his field. Watch Whitcomb. He ran a good race. Old Cash Day had some speed but his legs hurt him and he stopped early. He pulled up lame. Lady Irene hardly ran her race.

Winner—Br. f. 3, by Duke of Montrose—Laura W.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving hard. Afamada was the best. She was lucky, too, in getting away well on her stride, and always had clear sailing. She won like a real good filly. Tenole outraced herself a trifle. This performance is certainly above her notch. Duke of Haven was hardly ready. Little or nothing has been done with him of late. This race should do him a lot of good. He was catching Tenole at every stride. Tom Toher, considering the bad luck he had in the race, ran well. Tab him. Also watch Nivoce. The latter was well up all of the way. Ella Penzance made a strong bid in the stretch, but tired badly in the run home. Hi Daddy can do better.
Overweights—Nivoce, 3 pounds.

Time, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:16, 1:44.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Ben Ali—Shasta.

Post 17 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Osric II was much the best. He was sharply cut off on the first turn and raced in a pocket nearly all the way. He won handily though when he got out of it. Can Galop was tiring badly at the end. Amber Glints quit at the finish. Had a lot of speed. So had Hogg. Tab him. Haco was closing stoutly at the end. So was Stella B.

Scratched—Gallie, 103.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Sir Dixon—Belle Palmer.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving hard. Woods, after riding a well-timed race on Dr. Marks, was nearly caught napping at the finish. Serf closed like a wild horse. Laura May and Rowland Duete had speed. Virginia M. closed in stout fashion.

Winner—Br. f, 4, by Faverdale—Sweet Home.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second driving. Montgomery favors soft going. He stopped on the hard track today. Fireside, always in a good position, was perfectly handled and held the others safe all the way. Miss Verne was pumped out chasing Montgomery. Tragedy can be closely tabbed. She is good and will win a race soon.
